Greece has impossibly blue seas, gorgeous beaches, blue-domed Greek Orthodox churches, picturesque villages, and famous historical sites. Visitors have been lured to this ancient civilization for thousands of years and few cities rival Athens when it comes to historical importance. Travel to Athens is a must for history and archeology buffs, but the city's hillsides and picturesque vistas will be equally appreciated by nature lovers. Greece is the ultimate Mediterranean getaway.

Fresh Hotel (Athens)

Enjoy a 2-night stay in an executive room (queen bed) with daily breakfast and a bottle of wine in room upon arrival. Fresh Hotel is located right in the center of the city providing easy access to a number of ancient sites and iconic landmarks such as the Acropolis, the National Archaeological Museum and the National Gardens. Within walking distance are the areas of Plaka, Psirri, Monastiraki and Syntagma where you can wander, smell the captivating scent of coffee beans, herbs and spices in the nearby Central Food Market, feel the heartbeat of the city and fall in love with Athens.

Acropolis Tour

Take a private 2-hour tour of the Acropolis and see Greek history come to life before your eyes. Visit the ancient Greek fortress with its various buildings, including the Partheon, the Erechtheion, the Propylaea and the Temple of Nike, and enjoy authentic insights on your guided tour with a local insider.

Myconian Kyma Hotel (Mykonos)

Enjoy a 3-night stay in a deluxe sea view room (one king or two twin beds) with breakfast and a bottle of wine upon arrival. Kyma, Greek for "wave", is king of the hill, a 5-star haven of luxury hospitality high above Mykonos town yet just a short stroll from the stone steps of the historical harbor, leading down to Little Venice and the most picturesque part of Mykonos town.
